

Shanghai Telecom FTTH Demo Center Tour Information • May 8, 2012
Linking Fiber, Living Better

Dear FTTH CAP Conference Delegates,

On behalf of FTTH Council Asia Pacific, we would like to invite you to take part in a specially arranged Tour of Shanghai Telecom's FTTH Demo Center. This Tour is scheduled to take place on May 8, 2012.

Shanghai Telecom is one of the leading subsidiaries of China Telecom and a major deployer of FTTH in China. Currently Shanghai Telecom is aiming to attain its' 2nd million subscribers during this first half year. By taking part in this optional Tour, you will visit the FTTH demo site of Shanghai Telecom, which is located in Nanxiang town. Guests can see demos of different FTTH architectures deployed by Shanghai Telecom that have been replicated by many other China Telecom subsidiaries nationwide. The Tour allows you to learn about different types of total solutions from central office to the subscribers, including solutions in central office, feeder fiber network, access network as well as in-living unit fiber deployment solutions. The Center is also one of the typical ODN training facilities for operators learning how to deploy FTTH to their subscribers in the field. The Tour will help you better understand the solution in China for FTTH.

Welcome to Shanghai, and welcome to this educational and interesting Tour! Hope you can enjoy the FTTH CAP Conference in Shanghai.
